MISSOURI MILITIA TO BORDER SOON

NO FINAL ORDERS YET BUT TROOPS ARE RUSHED.

TO BE FIRST THERE WITH KAN. AND CALIF.

Secretary Baker Says Every Effort Will Be Made to Get Three States There at Once.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

San Antonio, June 22.—General Funston today telegraphed the war department an earnest request to send state troops to border as rapidly as possible. He is particularly desirous that all available cavalry be furnished immediately. The regular cavalry may be sent to reinforce Pershing.

The militia of Missouri, Kansas and California has already been ordered to the border. They will not increase the cavalry forces to any great extent, and General Funston hopes that the crack cavalry regiments of Illinois, Pennsylvania, New York and Ohio will move soon.

The National Guards may entrain for the border after two or three days, but if they do it will be a feat to excite the envy of regular army officers. They say it will require more time than that to muster the men into the government service, conclude the formalities of transferring the equipment from state to federal authority, distribute new equipment in place of outworn supplies and administer the anti-typhoid serum with which all the men are to be inoculated.

No Definite Orders Yet.

Washington, June 22.—While the war department officials said that actual orders to the three state militias have not been given, Secretary of War Baker said that as fast as the different state militia units can be equipped they will be sent to the border. Secretary Baker announced that the department is endeavoring to get the Missouri, Kansas and California militia to the border immediately. There are about 8,000 men in these three bodies.

WILL ENJOIN LIQUOR

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY SAWYERS TO FILE PETITION SOON.

STOPS MOST BOOTLEGGING

Such Injunctions Against Shipments of Booze Are Being Made Permanent Over Missouri.

Prosecuting Attorney W. G. Sawyers will file some time in July an injunction restraining the Wabash, C. B. & Q. and the Chicago Great Western railroads, and the Wells-Fargo and Adams express companies from delivering liquor shipments into Nodaway county. It will be returnable at the September term of circuit court.

Judge Harris at Columbia yesterday issued a permanent injunction against the railroads and express companies in Boone county which prevents the shipment of liquor from within the state to violators of local option laws, the list of whose names shall be furnished by the prosecuting attorney.

The University Missourian of Columbia says:

"In regard to interstate shipments Judge Harris ruled that the state cannot interfere with those except under the provisions of the Webb-Kenyon act. According to the Webb-Kenyon act, a state can prohibit interstate shipments only to the person that violates the state laws.

"Another modification indicated by Judge Harris is that persons can receive state shipments of liquor, providing they are for home consumption or for sacramental uses.

"Express and railroad companies will be furnished a list of names of persons to whom it will be illegal to deliver shipments. These persons have violated local option laws by selling liquor. In the future other persons who are once convicted of selling liquor will be unable to get state shipments of liquor.

"Finally Judge Harris indicated in his decision that he will require those ordering state shipments to say in writing that they want the liquor for home consumption or sacramental purposes."

SNIDER CASE APPEALED

Replevin Suit of Ellen Snyder vs. A. H. Smith Up to Circuit Court, Plaintiff Winning in Justice Court.

The case of Ellen Snyder vs. A. H. Smith, which was tried before a jury in Justice W. L. Johnson's court in this city Tuesday, was appealed today to the circuit court for the September term. In the justice court the verdict of the jury was for the plaintiff. The jury was composed of E. F. Hamlin, J. A. Speirs, George Wallace, Earl Kissinger, W. F. Smith and Charles Viles.

According to the petition, the suit is for the possession of two Jersey cows and one black Jersey cow, valued at $150, which the plaintiff states she is the owner by reason of a chattel mortgage executed by Alf Thompson, the owner of the said property, and which the defendant is now wrongfully detaining. Recovery of the property and damages for $25 is prayed for.

Ellis G. Cook and W. G. Sawyers represented the plaintiff, and Cook, Cummins & Dawson for the defendant.

ABOUT THEIR PLAYS

DETAILS OF THREE PERFORMANCES OF COBURN PLAYERS.

RIVALS ATTACKS FALSITY

Affectation Held Up to Ridicule by Sheridan's Masterpiece—"Hamlet" and "Richard III" Known.

The Coburn players, who will make their third appearance in Maryville next Monday and Tuesday under the auspices of the State Normal school, will present three plays that have helped more than any others to make the company famous throughout the country.

One play, "The Rivals," is the most famous play of Richard Brinsley Sheridan, and is a worthy addition to the repertoire of classic drama for the production of which the Coburn players have become so noted.

Written in 1775, just at the time when the reaction against insincerity and formalism was developing new force in Europe, "The Rivals" was an almost instantaneous success, and from that day till this, such is the universal nature of its appeal, its popularity has been perennial. Sheridan attacks what Fielding declared to be the only fair object of ridicule—and which, alas! we have always with us—affectation, consisting here of false sentiment, hollow forms and empty words in life and literature, shams and windy sentimentalities. But Sheridan's war against these was not waged in bitterness of heart; rather he blows them from him with one of the healthiest and heartiest laughs in the world.

Another play that will be given by the players is "Hamlet," a play which has been given out of doors at country clubs, colleges and universities.

Mr. Charles Douville Coburn's interpretation of the Prince of Denmark is just another evidence of his amazing versatility and though he has certainly "played many parts" in Shakespearean drama, in none of them has he displayed a higher quality of art, a more perfect appreciation of the subtleties of character. In his hands Hamlet ceases to be the impersonal creation of an author's brain and becomes a living, breathing human being, the center about whom one dramatic situation after another revolves, and whom we follow, profoundly moved, to the tragic end.

Appearing in worthy support is Mrs. Coburn, a truly "fair Ophelia." Never has the artistic simplicity of her acting been more impressive, more graciously effective; and with these two principal characters supplemented by a cast of remarkable balance and far more than the average general ability, it is easy to understand why "Hamlet" bids fair to be one of the most successful offerings the Coburn players have ever made.

The other play to be given by the Coburn players during their stay here is Shakespeare's "Richard III."

Mr. Charles Douville Coburn has added the tragedy of Richard the Crookback to his repertoire this season in response to many requests, but only after the care of preparation which characterizes all his productions. The actors have been selected with regard to their special aptitude for the many important parts in the play, every effort has been made to have the costumes and accessories historically correct.

"Richard III" is a drama that lends itself most fittingly to out-of-door production. The illusion of some of the greatest scenes of the play is greatly heightened and thoroughly sustained when they are given in the open, particularly the great climax [illegible] the part of Richard, Mr. Coburn's ability as a Shakespearean actor is seen at its best. His interpretation of the character is the result of long and deep study and will impress the student and layman alike as casting new light on the workings of a mind at war with itself.

MEET OUR NEW BAND

TWENTY-ONE MUSICIANS WILL STEP INTO WAR BREACH.

FOR TONIGHT'S CONCERT

Loss of Fourth Regiment Players on Way to Mexico Will Not Affect Thursday Night Attraction.

Anyone who has any doubt that the band concerts will not be as good as formerly because so many men were called to Mexico as a part of the Fourth Regiment band, will only need to come out to the square tonight to be convinced of their error.

The fact is that a great many good musicians in Maryville have not been playing with the band for one reason or another who are responding to the civic call for musicians to carry on the concerts which attract so many visitors to town every Thursday night.

Following is the list of those who will play in the Maryville band (successors to the Fourth Regiment):

Director, Lloyd Miles.

Cornets, Ed Schumacher, Lawrence Shanks, Wayland Ford, Marve A. Peery.

Clarinets, Albert Butherus, Lou Denny, T. C. Manning, Vernon Nash, O. A. Pastorius, U. R. Willie.

Saxophone, H. J. Becker.

Piccolo, William Nielson.

Altos, J. S. Clark and Paul Thompson.

Trombones, Paul J. Basford and Hal Hooker.

Baritone, Leon Cannon.

Tuba, Joe Cannon.

Drums, Harold Adle and Lawrence Schumacher.

Miles and Basford in Charge.

The rejuvenated band of those who do not care to go play for their country has been recruited by Lloyd Miles and Paul J. Basford. Mr. Miles, who has been business manager of the Fourth regiment, will direct the new organization.

The program which will be given tonight follows:

March, "Troopers' Tribunal" (Fillmore).

Intermezzo, "Romance of the Rose" (Trinkaus).

Medley overture, "Memories of the War" (Laurendeau).

March, "Brothers in Arms" (Chambers).

Grand selection, "Songs from the Old Folks" (Lake).

Reverie, "Land of Dreams" (Rockwell).

Overture, "Belle of the Village" Bouillon.

March, "America, I Love You" (Leslie).

PLEASED WITH ENTERTAINMENT.

Hopkins People Praised the Celebration of Maryville's Birthday.

By actual count forty auto loads of Hopkins people went to Maryville last Thursday to attend the celebration of Maryville's seventieth birthday and all were pleased with the manner in which they were received and entertained by the people of the county seat. There was an immense crowd present, demonstrating the fact that it doesn't require a saloon town to attract people.—Hopkins Journal.

ATKINSON HERE TODAY

LEADING CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR IN COUNTY TOMORROW.

James A. Houchin Spoke at Courthouse Last Night—Is Race Between Three Men?

John Morgan Atkinson of Ripley county, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor of Missouri, was in Maryville today in the interest of his candidacy. Mr. Atkinson intends to visit a number of the towns of the county tomorrow.

Another candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, James A. Houchin of Jefferson City, was in Maryville yesterday, and Attorney General John T. Barker of Jefferson City, who is also a candidate for governor, will make a canvass of the county tomorrow and Saturday.

Mr. Houchin spoke at the courthouse last evening to a crowd of about forty people. He is a strong good roads advocate and claims he can cut down the expenses of the legislature. Mr. Houchin was introduced at the meeting by Ellis G. Cook. He spoke probably thirty minutes on his platform and what he will do if elected.

Mr. Atkinson is 45 years old and served three terms in the state legislature from Ripley county, being first elected in 1903. In 1905 he was the minority leader in the lower house and in 1907 was made speaker of the house. He has served as assistant attorney general. During the session of the legislature in 1913, Mr. Atkinson was entrusted with drafting the public service commission law, commonly known as the public utilities commission.

Many of the Democrats of the state who were in St. Louis last week thought the race for governor was between three men, Mr. Atkinson, Fred Gardner of St. Louis and Cornelius Roach, secretary of state.

MRS. MARY HOGUE, 74, DIES

Pickering Woman, Long Resident of County, Leaves Four Sons—Funeral Tomorrow Probably.

Mrs. Mary Hogue, 74 years old, died at her home in Pickering at noon today. She had been suffering for some time from a tumor which caused her death.

Mrs. Hogue is an old resident of Nodaway county, having lived on a farm three miles west of Pickering for many years. Three years ago she moved into Pickering and has lived there ever since. Her husband died about eight years ago.

She leaves four sons, Clay, Frank and Al, who live elsewhere, and Bert, who lives on the family place west of Pickering.

It is not certain when the funeral will take place, but it will probably be held some time tomorrow.

BAND IS NOW AT NEVADA

FOURTH REGIMENT MUSICIANS MADE BIG HIT IN ST. JOSEPH.

Large Crowd Sees Them Off Here—Missouri Militia May Go to Border Very Soon.

The Fourth Regiment band, thirty strong entrained yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock and arrived safely at 5 o'clock this morning at Nevada, Mo., the home of the Missouri National Guard. A huge crowd that jammed the platform and ground of the Burlington station gave the boys a send-off.

Just before leaving the armory headquarters each soldier and bandman was given a large red bandana handkerchief by the Montgomery-Llye Clothing company. Mr. Montgomery also passed cigars to the boys. The bunch piled into Kelley's largest bus and rode over the business part of town before going to the train.

After their pictures singly and collectively had been taken and all the last good'byes said, the special coach was occupied and Maryville's representatives were off to the Mexican war.

St. Joseph was reached at 7 o'clock. Here it was that the group got its second real touch of war time, following the tears at the station here. Several companies of the Fourth regiment had collected at the Union station there to go to Nevada in a special train. Their Fourth Regiment band from Maryville immediately became the most popular affair in the city, playing all of the favorite war tunes for the soldiers and their friends.

The train pulled out o the Union station accompanied by "Dixie." And the war department now purposes to get Missouri's boys to the border among the first.

It is probable that the Maryville boys will be at Nevada for several days yet, as will be seen by referring to a telegraphic account of the militia orders in another column. Mail will reach them by addressing them in care of T. B. Maulding, Fourth Regiment band, M. N. G., Nevada, Mo.

A company of soldiers will not be organized in Maryville now but may be some time later on. The movement for a new company was started by Kyle Phares and an effort made to get into the Third regiment at Kansas City. No word has been received by Mr. Phares from that regiment, and no effort will be made to enlist men yet.

Carl Wray, administrator of the estate of Henry Mattson, and Mrs. Henry Mattson of Guilford were transacting business in probate court today.

Unsettled weather tonight and Friday, with probably thunder storms; cooler Friday.

TENSION TIGHTER IN BORDER TROOPS

BIG CLASH BETWEEN CARRANZISTAS AND U. S. SOLDIERS.

ABOUT 20 AMERICANS AND 40 MEXICANS DIE

Most of U. S. Dead From Negro Regiment—Funston Expects Many Such Fights Now.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Mexico City, June 22.—Full responsibility for the attack upon the American soldiers assumed by General Obregon in an official statement issued by the war department. This says the Americans were trying to occupy the railway station at Carrizal.

Carranza has called a full meeting of the cabinet for this afternoon, at which time Obregon will make a complete report of the situation.

Will Punish for Attack.

Washington, June 22.—The entire armed strength of the United States army and navy will be used to punish those responsible for the Carrizal battle if it develops that the Americans were ambushed. As early advices indicated, this position was taken in official circles.

Secretary of War Baker went into conference with President Wilson at 9 o'clock this morning. At that time there was no official word regarding the conflict. Secretary Baker indicates that it may not be received until tomorrow. Nothing will be done until official report is received.

Works Demands Intervention.

With congress enveloped in a cloud of grave apprehension over the Mexican situation, Senator Works of California today made formal demand on the senate for the passage of his resolution providing for immediate and complete intervention by the United States to establish a stable government in Mexico.

America's Fault, Says Arrendondo.

That the responsibility for yesterday's battle rested entirely upon the American commander was the assertion to Secretary of State Lansing by Arredondo, ambassador designate from Mexico.

Carranza Attacks U. S. Troops.

El Paso, June 22.—American and Carranza troops fought a bloody battle yesterday on the Santo Domingo ranch, near the Mexican town of Carrizal, nine miles southwest of Villa Ahumada, the Mexican field headquarters in northern Chihuahua.

The number of dead Americans or Mexicans was not definitely known, but a score of Gen. Pershing's men are said to have been killed and the Mexicans are said to have lost more than two score. Seventeen Americans are declared by Mexican officials to have been captured.

The Americans engaged are thought to have been members of a troop from the Tenth cavalry, a negro regiment, returning from a scouting trip to Guzman. The size of the Mexican force, whose commander, Gen. Felix Gomez, was killed, is not known.

Series of Clashes Expected.

General Funston believes that the Carrizal conflict is only the first of a series of clashes. Things buzzed actively here. Arms, ammunitions and supplies of all kinds were hurried southward on every train. Preparations are under way for the influx of militia forces that are to be sent within

"Or lose thyself in the continuous woods where rolls the Oregon, and hears no sound save his own dashings."
—William Cullen Bryant in "Thanatopsis." 1817.

Fort Vancouver (now Vancouver, Wash.) a Hudson Bay Co. post, was the first Columbia River settlement.

THE first mention in American literature of Oregon, the name which originally designated the entire Pacific Northwest as well as the Columbia River, was in William Cullen Bryant's immortal poem Thanatopsis, published in 1817. Then this mighty river flowed on its tempestuous course unknown and unexplored, through an uncharted wilderness.

Now the magnificent river and mountain scenery which thrilled the great poet's imagination are viewed by hosts of tourists from the observation platform of Union Pacific trains which carry their passengers for 200 miles along the Columbia River, paralleling the Columbia River Highway.

Of equal importance with this great scenic attraction is a road-bed ballasted with dustless Sherman gravel; heavy steel rails; automatic safety-signals. The Oregon-Washington Limited is one of the finest trains in the world. Through daily service from Kansas City to Portland, Tacoma and Seattle.

CANDIDATES ARE 'CLOSE'

MEN RUNNING FOR STATE OFFICE TO CUT EXPENSES.

So That There Will Be No Violation of the Law—$100 Can Be Expended for 5,000 Votes Cast

Some of the candidates for state office at the coming August primaries are busy figuring up the total expenditures which their "executive committees" and other "voluntary" organizations in behalf of their candidacies may incur under the provisions of the Missouri corrupt practices act which limits the amount of money to be expended by the candidates or by others in their behalf in order to obtain nominations. Many of the candidates are having their campaigns managed by committees which are sending out literature and otherwise incurring expenses.

Inasmuch as the law requires that these candidates must sign a sworn statement after the primary of the amounts spent "and the dates when and the persons to whom and the purposes for which all such sums are paid, expended or promised," the candidates are insisting that their "committees" keep an accurate record of their expenditures before the election to prevent legal proceedings by their opponents afterwards.

Law Is Precise.

The section under which the candidates are held liable for money spent in their behalf before the election is as follows:

"Section 6046—Amount to be expended by candidates—how determined—No candidate for congress or for any public office in this state, or in any county, district or municipality thereof, which office is to be filled by popular election, shall, by himself or by or through any agent or agents, committee or organization, or any person or persons whatsoever, in the aggregate pay out or expend, or promise or agree to pay or offer to pay, contribute or expend any money or other valuable thing in order to secure or aid in securing his nomination or election, or the nomination or election of any other person or persons, or both such nomination or election, to any office to be voted for at the same election, or in aid of any party or measure, in excess of a sum to be determined upon the following basis, namely:

For 5,000 voters or less, $100; for each 100 voters over 5,000 and under 25,000, $2; for each 100 voters over 25,000 and under 50,000, $1; and for each 100 voters over 50,000, 50 cents—the number of voters to be ascertained by the total number of votes cast for all the candidates for such office at the last preceding regular election held to fill the same; and any payment, contribution or expenditure or promise, agreement or offer to pay, contribute or expend any money or valuable thing in excess of said sum, for such objects or purposes, is hereby declared unlawful."

In making out their expense accounts, the candidates are not required to include traveling expenses and hotel bills, but all other items of expense of their campaign must be certified and sworn to the secretary of state and recorder of deeds.

"Or lose thyself in the continuous woods where rolls the Oregon, and hears no sound save his own dashings."
—William Cullen Bryant in "Thanatopsis," 1817.

Fort Vancouver (now Vancouver, Wash.) a Hudson Bay Co. post, was the first Columbia River settlement.

THE first mention in American literature of Oregon, the name which originally designated the entire Pacific Northwest as well as the Columbia River, was in William Cullen Bryant's immortal poem Thanatopsis, published in 1817. Then this mighty river flowed on its tempestuous course unknown and unexplored, through an uncharted wilderness.

Now the magnificent river and mountain scenery which thrilled the great poet's imagination are viewed by hosts of tourists from the observation platform of Union Pacific trains which carry their passengers for 200 miles along the Columbia River, paralleling the Columbia River Highway.

Of equal importance with this great scenic attraction is a road-bed ballasted with dustless Sherman gravel; heavy steel rails; automatic safety-signals. The Oregon-Washington Limited is one of the finest trains in the world. Through daily service from Kansas City to Portland, Tacoma and Seattle.

CANDIDATES ARE 'CLOSE'

MEN RUNNING FOR STATE OFFICE TO CUT EXPENSES,

So That There Will Be No Violation of the Law—$100 Can Be Expended for 5,000 Votes Cast

Some of the candidates for state office at the coming August primaries are busy figuring up the total expenditures which their "executive committees" and other "voluntary" organizations in behalf of their candidacies may incur under the provisions of the Missouri corrupt practices act which limits the amount of money to be expended by the candidates or by others in their behalf in order to obtain nominations. Many of the candidates are having their campaigns managed by committees which are sending out literature and otherwise incurring expenses.

Inasmuch as the law requires that these candidates must sign a sworn statement after the primary of the amounts spent "and the dates when and the persons to whom and the purposes for which all such sums are paid, expended or promised," the candidates are insisting that their "committees" keep an accurate record of their expenditures before the election to prevent legal proceedings by their opponents afterwards.

Law Is Precise.

The section under which the candidates are held liable for money spent in their behalf before the election is as follows:

"Section 6046—Amount to be expended by candidates—how determined—No candidate for congress or for any public office in this state, or in any county, district or municipality thereof, which office is to be filled by popular election, shall, by himself or by or through any agent or agents, committee or organization, or any person or persons whatsoever, in the aggregate pay out or expend, or promise or agree to pay or offer to pay, contribute or expend any money or other valuable thing in order to secure or aid in securing his nomination or election, or the nomination or election of any other person or persons, or both such nomination or election, to any office to be voted for at the same election, or in aid of any party or measure, in excess of a sum to be determined upon the following basis, namely:

For 5,000 voters or less, $100; for each 100 voters over 5,000 and under 25,000, $2; for each 100 voters over 25,000 and under 50,000, $1; and for each 100 voters over 50,000, 50 cents—the number of voters to be ascertained by the total number of votes cast for all the candidates for such office at the last preceding regular election held to fill the same; and any payment, contribution or expenditure or promise, agreement or offer to pay, contribute or expend any money or valuable thing in excess of said sum, for such objects or purposes, is hereby declared unlawful."

In making out their expense accounts, the candidates are not required to include traveling expenses and hotel bills, but all other items of expense of their campaign must be certified and sworn to the secretary of state and recorder of deeds.

A WOMAN'S BACK.

The Advice of This Maryville Woman is of Certain Value.

Many a woman's back has many aches and pains.

Ofttimes 'tis the kidneys' fault.

That's why Doan's Kidney Pills are so effective.

Many Maryville women know this.

Read what one has to say about it:

Mrs. R. Snyder, 1108 E. Third street, Maryville, says: "My kidneys bothered me for quite awhile, and I had a dull pain across my back. I felt tired all the time and couldn't rest well. After using a few boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills I got great relief. My health has been better since then."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Snyder had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

A New Lodge at Hopkins.

The Brotherhood of American Yeomen opened a new homestead in Hopkins last week when eighteen new members were taken in. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Tibbetts and Mel Atherton of Maryville were in attendance.

Mrs. Ed Otis and Mrs. Aaron Felix took a party of Sisters of St. Francis hospital to the farm of Mrs. Robert Noakes, west of the city, today. There were eight of them in the party, and they went out to pick gooseberries.

A. G. Clark of Minneapolis, Minn., who has been visiting his uncles, J. S. and A. T. Clark, returned to his home last night.

Will N. Wray of Guilford shipped two carloads of hogs today, one from Guilford and one from Cawood.

Miss Margaret Lee Winston left this morning for St. Joseph after a few months' stay in Maryville.

"Or lose thyself in the continuous woods where rolls the Oregon, and hears no sound save his own dashings." —William Cullen Bryant in "Thanatopsis," 1817.

Fort Vancouver (now Vancouver, Wash.) a Hudson Bay Co. post, was the first Columbia River settlement.

THE first mention in American literature of Oregon, the name which originally designated the entire Pacific Northwest as well as the Columbia River, was in William Cullen Bryant's immortal poem Thanatopsis, published in 1817. Then this mighty river flowed on its tempestuous course unknown and unexplored, through an uncharted wilderness.

Now the magnificent river and mountain scenery which thrilled the great poet's imagination are viewed by hosts of tourists from the observation platform of Union Pacific trains which carry their passengers for 200 miles along the Columbia River, paralleling the Columbia River Highway.

Of equal importance with this great scenic attraction is a road-bed ballasted with dustless Sherman gravel; heavy steel rails; automatic safety-signals. The Oregon-Washington Limited is one of the finest trains in the world. Through daily service from Kansas City to Portland, Tacoma and Seattle.

CANDIDATES ARE 'CLOSE'

MEN RUNNING FOR STATE OFFICE TO CUT EXPENSES.

So That There Will Be No Violation of the Law—$100 Can Be Expended for 5,000 Votes Cast

Some of the candidates for state office at the coming August primaries are busy figuring up the total expenditures which their "executive committees" and other "voluntary" organizations in behalf of their candidacies may incur under the provisions of the Missouri corrupt practices act which limits the amount of money to be expended by the candidates or by others in their behalf in order to obtain nominations. Many of the candidates are having their campaigns managed by committees which are sending out literature and otherwise incurring expenses.

Inasmuch as the law requires that these candidates must sign a sworn statement after the primary of the amounts spent "and the dates when and the persons to whom and the purposes for which all such sums are paid, expended or promised," the candidates are insisting that their "committees" keep an accurate record of their expenditures before the election to prevent legal proceedings by their opponents afterwards.

Law Is Precise.

The section under which the candidates are held liable for money spent in their behalf before the election is as follows:

"Section 6046—Amount to be expended by candidates—how determined—No candidate for congress or for any public office in this state, or in any county, district or municipality thereof, which office is to be filled by popular election, shall, by himself or by or through any agent or agents, committee or organization, or any person or persons whatsoever, in the aggregate pay out or expend, or promise or agree to pay or offer to pay, contribute or expend any money or other valuable thing in order to secure or aid in securing his nomination or election, or the nomination or election of any other person or persons, or both such nomination or election, to any office to be voted for at the same election, or in aid of any party or measure, in excess of a sum to be determined upon the following basis, namely:

For 5,000 voters or less, $100; for each 100 voters over 5,000 and under 25,000, $2; for each 100 voters over 25,000 and under 50,000, $1; and for each 100 voters over 50,000, 50 cents—the number of voters to be ascertained by the total number of votes cast for all the candidates for such office at the last preceding regular election held to fill the same; and any payment, contribution or expenditure or promise, agreement or offer to pay, contribute or expend any money or valuable thing in excess of said sum, for such objects or purposes, is hereby declared unlawful."

In making out their expense accounts, the candidates are not required to include traveling expenses and hotel bills, but all other items of expense of their campaign must be certified and sworn to the secretary of state and recorder of deeds.

Mexican Claims Differ Widely.

Advices today to the Mexican consul here from military headquarters at Juarez stated that twelve Americans including their commander were killed and seventeen were taken prisoners, while fourteen Mexicans were killed and thirty wounded in the battle of Carrizal. The number of Americans wounded was given as twenty.

Juarez Garrison to Carrizal.

The main force of the Juarez garrison is evacuating from town and entraining for Villa Ahumada, where the Carranzistas are reported to be preparing to make a stand against the American troops, who are said to be moving on that place after the Carrizal fight. From present indications only a small force will be left at Juarez.

STUDENT CHICKEN PICKERS

Poultry Class in University of Missouri Learns Best Methods of Dressing Fowls.

If you want the latest word in efficiency in killing and picking chickens, ask some of the students who have taken H. L. Kempster's course in marketing poultry products, at the Missouri college of agriculture. They dress the chickens by what is known as the dry-picking method, by which they should with practice be able to learn to pick 500 chickens a day. Each student is given a chance to pick only twenty. They cannot all be taught at once, so one squad of the class does this work each Saturday morning until all have learned.

"Of course, the fact that these chickens are properly dressed does not explain their unusual richness of flavor," says E. H. Rucker of the poultry department. They taste better because they are fattened in crates before they are killed. These fattening crates are built by members of the class. Each student builds a crate, starves his twenty chickens for a day, and then puts them into the crate and gives them a special ration of 7 parts corn meal, 3 parts middlings and 1 part bran with buttermilk enough to make a mixture about as thin as pancake batter. During the ten or fourteen days they are fed this ration they gain from 15 to 25 per cent in weight and much more than that in flavor.

THE NOTE TO MEXICO.

The patience, dignity, moderation and firmness of the government at Washington show at their best in the note to the Carranza government made public yesterday. No true American can read it without a new pride in his country. Mexico has injured and wronged us; her spokesmen have added insult to injury. The factor of prudence does not enter; there is no risk to us in holding what language we please; for we are strong and Mexico is weak. Yet our communication to Carranza is as carefully reasoned as if we were addressing England or Germany. The very weakness of Mexico is a claim upon us.

We are still seeking peace with our neighbor to the south, still invoking the witness of facts, still appealing to reason and conscience. This is the American way.

The note is long, but singularly clear and simple. In answer to all the charges brought against us by Carranza's representatives, two facts are a sufficient answer. One is that the troops pursuing the Glenn Springs marauders penetrated Mexico for 168 miles without seeing a single Carranzista soldier. This fact effectually disposes of the charge that we acted without reason, in that Carranza was ready and willing to punish the offenders without our help. The other fact is that the opportunities for intervention which presented themselves before the recognition of Carranza were ignored. This disposes of the "territory grabbing" charges. And the suggestion of Carranza that it is our duty so to patrol our border as to prevent a marauder crossing anywhere is treated summarily, yet on its merits—or lack of them—and not with deserved contempt.

Whatever necessity the coming days bring upon us we shall have the inner satisfaction of having acted throughout the long period of attempted cooperation with Carranza which has now come to an end with the chivalry which a strong nation ought always to show to a weak people, and with the reliance on reason and right which befits a government of and for the people. It is evident that the shadow is about to move on the dial in Mexico. If the patriotic and loyal Mexican desires to know what it means for a weak and anarchic people to fall into the hands of the United States, let him look at Cuba. There is a prophecy.—St. Louis Republic.

WIFE SPOILS HIS SYSTEM.

Cleveland (O.) Man Wears His Shirts Any Old Way Now.

Cleveland, O.—One Cleveland man wears his shirts in chronological order—that is, if he buys a new shirt he tags it with his initials, numbers it and places it at the bottom of the pile. And, no matter how much he likes it, he does not wear it until it comes out at the top of the pile. He went into wordy detail about the economy of his system, and he added that he arranged his socks and underwear in the same manner.

He was told that he would meet the woman of his dreams some fine day and that she would knock the spots out of his system; that she would admire a particular shirt, caress its delicate stripes lovingly and ask why he didn't send it to the laundry as soon as it was soiled and wear it as soon as it got back, and he would buy other shirts like it, and he would forget the system.

"Don't you believe it," he said. "The person doesn't live who could upset my system."

A few days ago he was hurrying to catch a car, and he didn't have time to explain. He only shouted over his shoulder jubilantly, "I'm wearing 'em every which way."
